

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Rudolf CHMEL

Slovak – Hungarian Dialogue: the Need for a New Beginning

Miroslav MICHELA

Collective Memory and Political Change – The Hungarians and the Slovaks in the Former Half of the 20th Century

István KOLLAI

Shattered Past. Socio-Psychological Aspects of Slovak-Hungarian Relations – from the Hungarian Point of View

Karel HIRMAN

The Transit Location of Slovakia and its Interests in the Context of the EU Energy Security

András DEÁK

Diversification in Hungarian Manner: The Gyurcsány Government's Energy Policy

László PÓTI

Hungarian Foreign Policy and ENP in the East: Energy- (and) Nationality-based Policy

Róbert ONDREJCSÁK

Security Policies of the Slovak Republic and Hungary – the “Limited Differentiation” in Central Europe

Judit HAMBERGER

The Future of the Visegrad Cooperation from the Hungarian Perspective

REVIEWS

Failed Illusions. Moscow, Washington, Budapest and the 1956 Hungarian Revolt

By Charles Gati. Bratislava: Kaligram, 2006. Translation: Peter Fridner

Martin BÚTORA

Svinia in Black & White: Slovak Roma and their Neighbours

By David Z. Scheffel. Peterborough, Ontario: Broadview Press, 2005.

László FOSZTÓ

Slavackaja nadzeja: dosved demakratyčnych transfarmacij. (Hope for Slovakia: the Experience of Democratic Transformations).

Bratislava, Minsk: Institute for Public Affairs, 2006.

Oľga ŠPARAGA

Principles of International Politics: People's Power, Preferences and Perceptions.

By Bruce Bueno De Mesquita. Washington: CQ Press, 2006

Matúš HALÁS

Terorizmus ako politický fenomén (Terorism as Political Phenomenon).

By Jozef Klavec. Bratislava: Comenius University, 2004.

Martin PASIAK

BIBLIOGRAPHY