Visegrad Group and EU Nordic Countries*

EU Climate Policy and Regional Cooperation: Can Visegrad Group and EU Nordic Countries Do More Together?

Roundtable discussion
8-9 December 2020
10:00 - 11:30 AM CET
via Zoom

Visegrad Insight and Res Publica Foundation invite you to join a roundtable discussion on the regional cooperation between V4 and EU Nordic Countries that will take place online on 8-9 December 2020 at 10:00 - 11:30 AM CET.

The United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union (EU) will inevitably reshape the dynamics of decision-making within the EU with the new alliances among the Member States established. Although the Visegrad Group is perceived as a strong regional player, there is still plenty of potential for it to build broader coalitions on a variety of issues. At the roundtable we intend to explore the potential for such a coalition between V4 and EU Nordic Countries.

Tuesday, 8 December 2020, 10:00 - 11:30 AM CET

On the Day 1 of the roundtable we will look into the current state of cooperation between V4 and EU Nordic countries (Denmark, Finland and Sweden), as well as whether there is a potential for the coalition between these two groups of countries within the EU in the future, and in which areas.

Invited speakers:

- Ambassador Juha Ottman, Embassy of Finland in Poland (TBC);
- Hans Mouritzen, Senior Researcher, Danish Institute for International Studies (Denmark);
- Juha Jokela, Programme Director, Finnish Institute of International Affairs (Finland);
- Mark Rhinard, Senior Research Fellow, Swedish Institute of International Affairs (Sweden).

Wednesday, 9 December 2020, 10:00 - 11:30 AM CET

On the Day 2 of the roundtable we plan to explore touch points between Visegrad Group and EU Nordic Countries with regard to the EU climate policy/Green Deal, and in particular look into what has been the level of cooperation in that regard so far; which areas of the policy could be of a common interest for both groups of countries in the future; can the groups do more acting together in this context, or whether the cooperation on a bilateral level is a better option.

VISEGRAD / INSIGHT

Invited speakers:

- Catharina Sørensen, Deputy Director, Think-tank EUROPA (Denmark);
- Henri Vogt, Professor, University of Turku (Finland);
